

Go to an opera!

Watch a play!

Support the economy!

We don't go enjoy the performing arts because it's good for the economy. But it is. The arts industry in Alaska generates over 40 million dollars in economic activity and provides 1,000 jobs each year. The arts not only enhance our lives, they are a critical part of Alaska's economy.

Alaska State Council on the Arts
www.eed.state.ak.us/aksca

The Alaska State Council on the Arts, a state agency, is proud to foster the development of the arts for all Alaskans through education, partnerships, grants and services. Funding is provided by the Alaska State Legislature, the National Endowment for the Arts and other public and private partners.

