

[6] 2.7.3 Identifying or explaining use of literary elements and devices appropriate to genre (i.e.: dialogue, rhyme, alliteration, simile, metaphor or personification)

Directions: Match the literary element or device to its correct definition.

- |                      |   |
|----------------------|---|
| _____Alliteration    | A. gives real-life characteristics to non-living objects  |
| _____Dialogue        | B. a comparison made between two things using the words like or as  |
| _____Metaphor        | C. similarity in the sounds of words  |
| _____Personification | D. words spoken by characters in a book   |
| _____Simile          | E. figure of speech in which a word or phrase meaning one kind of object or idea is used in place of another to suggest a similarity between them |
|                      | F. literary effect achieved by using several words that begin with the same or a similar consonant  |

Directions: Match the literary element or device to the correct example.

- |                      |  |
|----------------------|--|
| _____Rhyme           | A. the northern lights danced                                    |
| _____Dialogue        | B. he was as fast as a cheetah                                   |
| _____Metaphor        | C. Humpty Dumpty sat on the wall, Humpty Dumpty had a great fall |
| _____Personification | D. "Sit still," said mother.                                     |
| _____Simile          | E. She was a flower among women.                                 |