4 AAC 12 is amended by adding a new section to read:

4 AAC 12.318. Approval of in-state educator preparation programs. (a) A regionally accredited institute of higher education in this state may apply to the board for approval of the following educator preparation programs:

- (1) a teacher preparation program;
- (2) a special education teacher preparation program;
- (3) an education administrator preparation program, which may include a specialization for principal or superintendent;
- (4) a special education administrator preparation program; and
- (5) a special services preparation program in school psychology, speech/language pathology, speech pathology, audiology, speech and hearing, speech therapy, school counseling, school social work, or school library science.

(b) For educator preparation programs for which the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education sets standards, the board will approve an application under (a) of this section if the program offered by the applicant substantially meets the Professional Standards for the Accreditation of Teacher Preparation Institutions, published by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education, February 2008.

(c) For educator preparation programs for which the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education does not set standards, the board will approve a program if the program substantially meets the program standards adopted by the accrediting agency for that program recognized by the council for higher education accreditation.

(d) An institution may apply for approval under (a) of this section only if the institution's headquarters are located in this state and the institution is not eligible to have its educator training program reviewed for approval by a state board of education located in a different state. (Eff. __/__/2012, Register __)

(e) An approval of an educator preparation program under (a) of this section expires seven years after granted. An institution may reapply for approval of a program at any time during the seven years, and must reapply if the institution makes changes to the program that would trigger a new accreditation evaluation. The board may withdraw approval of a program at any time if the board receives substantial evidence that the program no longer meets the standards in (b) or (c) of this section.

(f) An institution may appeal the denial of an approval under (b) or (c) of this section or the withdrawal of an approval under (e) of this section under the appeal process in 4 AAC 40.
