Alternate Assessment : Alaska Reports

Welcome to the DRA Web Reporting System

This website supports the Alaska Alternate Assessment and is designed to allow access to official student reports and other reporting information provided by Dillard Research Associates.

Your User ID and Password allow you to view the information for which you are authorized. Please keep your User ID and Password confidential.

Begin by logging in. If you are a first-time user, or need help navigating through the system, please click on the User Manual button located at the bottom of the page.

The State of Alaska also maintains a website with important information regarding the Alaska Alternate Assessment.

System Requirements

To begin using the DRA Secure Web Reporting System, follow the steps outlined on the following pages. DRA recommends using Firefox, Safari, or Internet Explorer version 5.0 or higher. In addition you will need a working copy of Adobe Acrobat (or similar pdf viewing software) in order to view or print the reports. It is recommended larger districts access this website with a high-speed internet connection – the file size containing all reports can be large. If you have any questions or problems concerning the web site, contact Aaron Glasgow at Dillard Research Associates: aaron@edprogress.com or 1-800-838-3163.

Log-in Information

The Web site address is <http://akreports.k12test.com/>. To login, enter the user ID and password supplied to District Testing Coordinators via their contact email address.

1. User ID: Type your user ID in this data field.
2. Password: Type your password in this data field.
3. Click on the Login button.

After a successful login, the Home page will appear (see below for an example).

Chugach Schools

To view the reports you must have Adobe Acrobat installed on your system. To access reports, click on the title. If you're unable to view the reports, you may have a pop-up blocker installed, and you will need to disable it. Reports can take up to several minutes to download depending on your network connection. In order to ensure system security, when you have finished downloading the reports please either press the 'Log Out' link below or close the browser window.

System Files

You should find the following available in this site: (a) a file containing the Official Alternate Assessment Student reports for your district, (b) links to the Parent Guide to Test Interpretation and Educator Guide to Test Interpretation, (c) a link to a User Manual, (you may save or print these files), and (d) a link to the EED Alternate Assessment website (located on the Welcome page of the DRA Online Reporting System). Additional information and materials are available on the Alaska EED website.

Viewing Reports

After logging in you will be in the report page for your district. To view the reports you must have Adobe Acrobat installed on your system. If you do not have Adobe Acrobat installed, you can download it for free from Adobe's website:

<http://www.adobe.com/products/acrobat/readstep2.html>

Clicking on the title of the reports will start the download process. You may save and/or print all report files for future reference or for distribution to schools.

If you're unable to view the reports, you may have a pop-up blocker installed, and you will need to disable it. Reports can take up to several minutes to download depending on your network connection. In order to ensure system security, when you have finished downloading the reports please either press the 'Log Out' link below or close the browser window.

Log Out

When you are finished viewing information, click the Log Out button. You can then close your browser window or navigate to another address.

User Manual

The User Manual page may be accessed at any time. The manual will guide you through the online system. This manual may be printed for reference.
